Born and raised in a small Northern California town didn't stop country singer and songwriter, Jason Buell from chasing a big city dream.

Jason moved to Nashville, Tennessee where he would spend the next ten years honing his craft. Sharing the stage with some of the biggest names in music has always been his dream. With hard work and dedication, he has opened for some of country music's biggest stars including Thomas Rhett, Brett Eldredge, Mark Chestnutt, Phil Vassar, and many more. With a sound that blends traditional country with today's modern sound, Buell continues to break the mold as a powerhouse vocalist.

Jason's single, LIGHT ME UP, was released to all digital formats and quickly garnered the attention of country radio. Light Me Up's success inspired him to take a short break and focus on writing. With the new songs completed, he decided it was time to return to the studio. Jason is collaborating with one of Nashville's top Producers, Bill McDermott for this project. McDermott has produced songs for George Strait, Tim McGraw, Martina McBryde, and many other legendary artists.

Buell is excited to book shows and share the new tunes with his fans. For the latest news, follow Jason Buell Music on all social media platforms.
